

Ministry Release Series

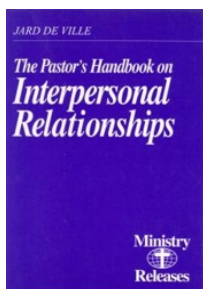

(produced by the Ministerial Association)

#1 Preaching to the Times

Charles E Bradford

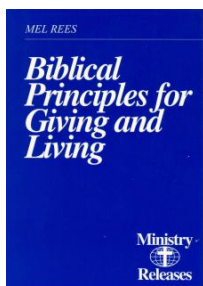

Charles E Bradford has served the Seventh-day Adventist Church in virtually every aspect of church life and leadership – pastor, evangelist, departmental leader, conference officer, and president of the North American Division. Since his retirement in July 1990 he continues to serve the church as consultant, author, speaker, and counselor. His counsel to preachers is rooted in a lifelong mastery of the craft.

#3 Pastors Handbook on Interpersonal Relationships, The

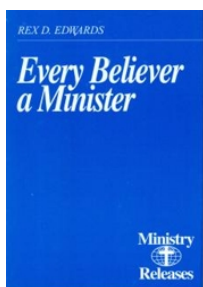

Jard De Ville

Jard De Ville, Professor of leadership at Metropolitan State University, Minneapolis, is a popular management and leadership consultant for business, industry, and churches. He and his wife, Roberta, are active members of their local United Methodist Church where he models his own recommendations for interpersonal relationships – “become the best leader you can possibly be for God, the people, and yourself.”

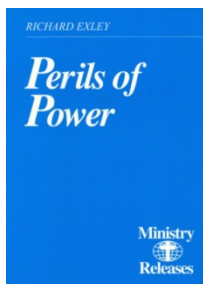

#4 Biblical Principles for Giving and Living

Mel Rees

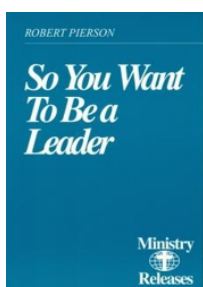

#5 Every Believer a Minister

Rex D Edwards

#6 Perils of Power

Richard Exley

#7 So You Want to Be A Leader

Robert Pierson

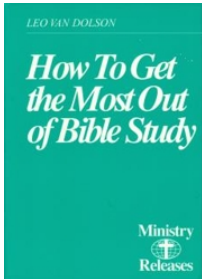

Robert H Pierson has served the Seventh-day Adventist church in virtually every aspect of church life and leadership as pastor, evangelist, departmental leader, conference, union and division administrator and President of the General Conference. He was a beloved leader, who, through his long years of ministry, practiced the leadership principles found in this updated volume.

#8 It Won't Fly If You Don't Try

Richard Allen Farmer

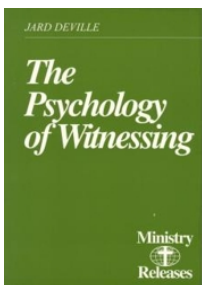

How to let your creative genius take flight.

#9 How To Get the Most Out of Bible Study

Leo Van Dolson

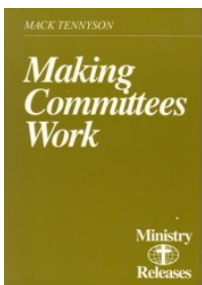

Leo Van Dolson, Ph.D., has served the Seventh-day Adventist Church in a multitude of areas – pastor, teacher, missionary, author, editor, and departmental leader. Over the years he has consistently sought to help people understand the Bible better.

#10 Psychology of Witnessing, The

Jard Deville

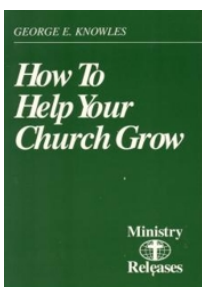

Jard Deville, Professor of Leadership at Metropolitan State University, Minneapolis, is a popular management and leadership consultant for business, industry, and churches. He and his wife, Roberta, are active members of their local United Methodist Church where he models his own recommendations for interpersonal relationships – “become the best leader you can possibly be for God, the people, and yourself.”

#11 Making Committees Work

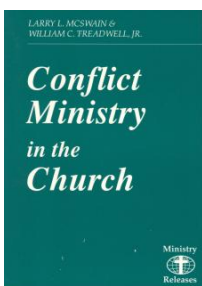

Mack Tennyson

Mack Tennyson, a certified public accountant and associate professor in the School of Business and Economics at the College of Charleston, South Carolina, serves his local Adventist Congregation as a laity leader and his world church organization on committees for governance and administration.

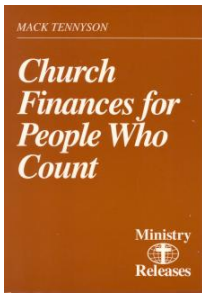

#12 How to Help Your Church Grow

George E Knowles

#13 Conflict Ministry in the Church

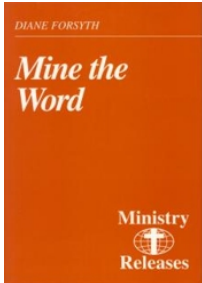

Larry L McSwain & William C Treadwell Jr

#14 Church Finances for People Who Count

Mack Tennyson

A basic handbook for church treasurers, trustees, deacons and ministry staff

#15 Mine the Word

Diane Forsyth

Diane Forsyth has served as a pastor, Bible teacher, and chaplain. Currently she is director of Charistis, a ministry dedicated to spiritual life development for children and adults. She is convinced that Bible study and prayer involve the whole person; being as well as thinking and doing, listening as well as talking. Her experience with this kind of Bible study and prayer has led her to prepare this book and other materials that contribute to spiritual life development.